

Summer Archaeological Fieldschool Department of Anthropology

15ANTH473
and 15ANTH773

Who: Anyone interested in learning about archaeological field methods.
No prerequisites required.

What: Undergraduate or Graduate Credit 6 to 12 hours.
Archaeological Surface Survey—13,000 years ago to Present.
Geophysical Survey—Ground Penetrating Radar, Magnetic Susceptibility, Remote Sensing.
Archaeological Excavation—500 BC to AD 500.
Drill Core Sampling—Split –Spoon, Solid Core, and Auger.
Flotation, Dating, and Paleoclimate Techniques.
Mapping—Transit, GPS , and GIS.
Curation Techniques.

When: Summer Quarter. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, 8 AM to Noon

Where: Cincinnati Area, Shawnee Lookout Park, and the Cincinnati Center for Field Studies

How: 100% Hands-on, In-the-field, Learn-by-doing